

The Palais Royal's Extra Page

The morning papers gave you a general review of "Profit Sharing Day." This extra page is to give greater details—to prove a guide for tomorrow's visitors that will save considerable time and trouble.

CHOICE FOR 87c

The readers of this page will be first to learn of these Third floor wonder "spots"—and first to carry off the best prizes. Only three of the dresses are pictured and but a few of the many undergarments. Note that the makers of the house dresses will only allow us 300 of them, so that the rule "not more than two to each purchaser" is made for the welfare of the many. All will be gone before closing time tomorrow. Come early—and find sizes 36 to 46.

$2

Such waists at $1.00 and $2.00 are possible only because of Profit Sharing Day and the makers entering into the spirit of the occasion. "It's but for this one day in the year"—the expression used by the Palais Royal proprietor to the writer when the subject came up of dividing profits with patrons and employees—was echoed by New York's leading maker of fine waists, who generously contributed his share to the success of the day.

Note that the usual $1 Skirts are only 69c

Third floor for these White Linen Skirts at 69c; Imported Rep Skirts at $2.98 and $3.98 instead of $3.98 and $5.00; White Bedford Cord Skirts at $5.98—these are of imported material and man-tailored, linking light weight with classic grace.
